From the President

Boy, has it been a quick summer. I'm sure, like me, it is hard to believe it is almost time for school to start and that means fall. This is my favorite time of year. I love the colors and hopefully cooler temps once in awhile. This is also the time to start planning for projects for the new year of our chapter. Please take some time and think what type of projects or workshops that would interest you.

I am somewhat concerned for our chapter. I respect all the demands life has on our time and budgets but as with all things our chapter needs some tending. We may be a small chapter but we have done some pretty amazing things and to continue we need every members help. The Art-Tea is fast approaching so check with the committee and how you can help. This is also an opportunity for you to sell some of your art. Maybe those pieces you painted in a workshop and learned a new technique can now be sold to finance another project. Please try to attend the business meeting as many things will need to be consider for the next year and all of our opinions and votes count.

Workshop with Jean Archer

"Hydrangea Reflections "

Class time will begin at 9:00 am.

"Hydrangea Reflections" was designed as a small decorative mirror frame painted in oils. The class is for beginners with some painting experience and for intermediate oil painters. The design will be sent a few weeks ahead of the class. Notes and photos will be provided to you at the class.

Surface: The wood frame and mirror will be available from Barbara.

Preparation: The original piece was stained with White Lightning which is no longer on the market but if you have some you can use it. Option: To get an opaque base, paint with Deco Art Americana acrylic Light Buttermilk. Sealing the acrylic base coat is not necessary except to make the cleanup of mistakes easier. Seal when dry using the new formula of Krylon Matte Finish #1311 (to make sure it is the new formula, look for the words "decorative painting" on the back of the can. Do not use the old formula).

Brushes: Brights: (short flats) #4 and #6, Round spotter: #1, Mop: Ann Kingslan or Cheri Rol #0 or #2, Liners: #5/0 or #00 other small favorite liner, Angle Brush: optional 10/0 Series 7500 by Loew Cornell.
